On December 8th, this truly exceptional ristorante will have the world-renowned Andrea Bocelli host a charitable wine dinner for The Arpa Foundation, of which Bocelli is the President, and The Children's Partners Foundation benefitting The Children's Hospital.

For $1500 per ticket, the evening will begin at 6:30 p.m. with cocktails and beautiful sound created by world-famous violinist: Drew Tretick. An exquisite wine dinner will follow, perfectly planned and prepared by Chef/Owner Alessandro Carollo and his Executive Chef, Christian Delle Fave. Vintage Tuscan wines will be carefully selected by the Downtown General Manager, Mario Mazzei, who with the assistance of Manager, Youssef Chihab, will oversee the entire evening. To make sure everything else goes flawlessly, DTC General Manager, Nunzio Marino will be in charge of the overall entertainment throughout this once-in-a-lifetime event.
